New Delhi: Prominent writer Shirshendu Mukherjee received Sahitya Akademi Fellowship. Prominent Kannada poet and playwright Chandrashekhara Kambar handed over the honor to him on Saturday. Naturally, Bengal is happy to receive this honor from Shirshendu. Sahitya Akademi Fellowship is a literary honor in India awarded by the Sahitya Akademi, National Academy of Letters, India. This is the highest honor bestowed on an author on behalf of the Academy. These fellows are considered "immortal in Indian literature". Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan was the first author to be selected for the fellowship. Mulk Raj Anand received the award in 1989 and RK Narayan in 1994.
