About OCLC

OCLC is a global library cooperative that provides shared technology services, original research and community programs for its membership and the library community at large. With thousands of library members in more than 100 countries, we come together as OCLC to make information more accessible and more useful. OCLC and its member libraries cooperatively produce and maintain WorldCat, the largest online public access catalog (OPAC). OCLC also maintains the Dewey Decimal Classification system.

About Eric Van Lubeeck

Eric is the Vice President and Managing Director of OCLC EMEA & APAC. He has worked in the library information systems industry since the early eighties in several positions, including consulting, sales, marketing and senior management. Eric has a degree in librarianship and documentation of Avans University of Applied Sciences Tilburg and a Master of Science in Business Administration from the Rotterdam School of Management, Erasmus University in the Netherlands.
