

Indian Museum, Kolkata

presents

Following the Box

This is an exhibit about time, an exploration of an India that has changed dramatically in some areas and stayed the same in others. It is also about America's brief military presence in India towards the end of World War II. Above all, it is the story of two American artists who found a box of photographs made in India in 1945 by an anonymous U.S. serviceman and their attempts to unravel a mystery.
