Event : To celebrate the Birth centenary of Venerable Bakula Rinpoche, Photo exhibition on Venerable Bakula Rinpoche is being organised by East Asia Programme Unit, IGNCA.

Ven. Bakula Rinpoche was a monk-activist, and helped the cause of peace and spread of the teaching of Lord Buddha in different parts of the world. He was associated with many national and international organizations working for world peace, environmental conservation and inter-faith dialogue. His role was pivotal in reigniting the light of Dharma among people in different countries who were denied their spiritual freedom by authoritarian communist regimes. His contributions in the revival of Buddhism in many countries including Mongolia, Russia and China speak volumes of his great personality. May his legacy of loving compassion and dedication to serve the poor and needy continue to inspire the future generations.

The exhibition was inaugurated on 20th December, 2017.

Venue : IGNCA Exhibition Hall, 11, Mansingh Road, New Delhi.
