About the Artist

Mumbai based artist Baiju Parthan is one of the earliest exponents of new-media art in the Indian contemporary art scene. Having received his degree in painting from College of Art Goa under the guidance of well known artist Laxman Pai during the 80's, Baiju Parthan began employing computer generated material in his art projects during the 90's. From then on, he has continued to produce art in conventional as well as digital media to generate a body of work that could be classified as inter-media art. Baiju Parthan has exhibited his art to much acclaim in major centres in India and globally, in countries such as the United States of America, United Kingdom, Japan, Hong Kong, China, Germany, Australia, and Austria. His work is currently on display in 'The Eye and the Mind- New Interventions in Indian Art' – Gaungdong Museum of Art, Guangzhou, China.
